Continuation of 1(c) Other: The markings to show changes made in the specification are not consistent with the previously entered paragraph (i.e., filed 28 January 2005). Instead, it appears that the markings are based on the paragraph presented in the originally filed specification, which is superseded by the 28 January amendment. It is also noted that if the amendment had been entered it would not overcome the objection to the specification set forth in the 18 July Office Action because it is not clear that the incorporation by reference does not refer to the 09/881,797 application as well as the provisional application..
